Laboratory Procedures

For long term storage, we suggest that PRIMA-1\textsuperscript{MET} be stored as supplied at -20°C. It should be stable for at least two years.

PRIMA-1\textsuperscript{MET} is supplied as a crystalline solid. A stock solution may be made by dissolving the PRIMA-1\textsuperscript{MET} in the solvent of choice. PRIMA-1\textsuperscript{MET} is soluble in organic solvents such as ethanol, DMSO, and dimethyl formamide, which should be purged with an inert gas. The solubility of PRIMA-1\textsuperscript{MET} in these solvents is approximately 25, 20, and 30 mg/ml, respectively.

Further dilutions of the stock solution into aqueous buffers or isotonic saline should be made prior to performing biological experiments. Ensure that the residual amount of organic solvent is insignificant, since organic solvents may have physiological effects at low concentrations. Organic solvent-free aqueous solutions of PRIMA-1\textsuperscript{MET} can be prepared by directly dissolving the crystalline solid in aqueous buffers. The solubility of PRIMA-1\textsuperscript{MET} in PBS, pH 7.2, is approximately 5 mg/ml. We do not recommend storing the aqueous solution for more than one day.

Mutations in the p53 tumor suppressor are found in many different neoplastic cells. PRIMA-1 (Item No. 63520) is a unique anti-oncogenic substance that re-activates the apoptotic function of mutant p53 \textit{via} conformational modulation of function-specific epitopes.\textsuperscript{1,2} PRIMA-1\textsuperscript{MET} is a methylated derivative of PRIMA-1 that restores tumor-suppressor function to mutant p53 and induces cell death in various cancer cell lines.\textsuperscript{3} PRIMA-1\textsuperscript{MET} can synergize with chemotherapeutic drugs to induce tumor cell apoptosis.\textsuperscript{4} At 25-50 µM, it can also dose-dependently inhibit thioredoxin reductase, a key regulator of cellular redox balance.\textsuperscript{5}
